Featuring Dr. Lisa Davison presenting
“Rowdy Broads of the Hebrew Bible: Keepers of the Covenant”

This presentation will look at women in the Hebrew Bible who were agents of God for insuring that the covenant God made with the People of Israel survived for future generations. Sometimes the methods by which they accomplished God’s desires were questionable, but they got the job done. From a sampling of their stories, we will discover what lessons these often pushy, wise, & risqué women can teach us about faith in the 21st century.

FaithLife Connections is an ongoing lecture/conversation series offering a forum for participants to explore faith values in daily life. Held on a Saturday, beginning at 9:00 a.m., presentations will include a local panel. Together with the speaker, the panel will respond and share perspectives inviting conversations with all attendees. Throughout the day resources will be provided for those interested in teaching or leading study groups. Each program will conclude at 3:00 p.m. The program welcomes ecumenical and multi-faith participants.
