FaithLife Connections is an ongoing lecture/conversation series offering a forum for participants to explore faith values in daily life. Held on a Saturday, beginning at 9:00 a.m., presentations will include a local panel. Together with the speaker, the panel will respond and share perspectives inviting conversations with all attendees. Throughout the day resources will be provided for those interested in teaching or leading study groups. Each program will conclude at 3:00 p.m. The program welcomes ecumenical and multi-faith participants.

Featuring Susanna Southard presenting “Eat, Drink and Be Married: Five Festival Scrolls from Jewish and Christian Perspectives”

“This presentation will provide a taste of texts from Song of Songs, Ruth, Lamentations, Ecclesiastes, and Esther. These short books, exploring God’s hidden role in ordinary human events, are not often preached in Protestant churches; however, they are read every year in Jewish festivals known by Christians as Passover, Pentecost, 9th of Av, Feast of Booths, and Purim. Come and be surprised by traditional and not-so-traditional interpretations of the scrolls and their festival roles.
