Take a Fresh Look At...

Thanks to a programmer's generous gift, PTS launched its new website in early July. The site address is the same: www.ptstulsa.edu but the look and the navigation are completely new; and much of the content has been re-written.

We are very grateful to Cheri Peluso-Verdend, Tulsa resident and wife of PTS vice president Gary Peluso-Verdend, for the hundreds of hours she gave to creating the site. Cheri's latest volunteer project can be viewed at www.helpingmayanfamilies.org.

Generation to Generation

Generation to Generation is comprised of those persons who have informed the seminary that they have arranged for a planned or deferred gift to PTS. Such gifts are vital to our long-term financial stability and represent a wonderful way of supporting leadership education for ministry into the coming generations. We thank the following persons who have arranged planned or deferred gifts and have informed us of their intentions:

Bob and Charlotte Allen
 Karen Ault
 Joseph Bessler and Kay Northcutt
 John and Helen Bloss
 Phyllis Brownlee
 David and Mary Lou Bryan
 John Henry Cain
 William Carlson
 Margaret Carpenter
 Gail Davidson
 Arla Elston
 Frances Caldwell Ervin
 Elberta Evans
 Paul and Ruth Few
 Gene and Bonnie Frazier
 Norma Fugit
 Bob and Patty Gartman
 Fran Gasche-Cain
 Richard and Emily Guentert

Gifts-In-Kind

In addition to financial gifts, the seminary also receives tangible gifts of other sorts. Professionals donate their time and skills. Trustees and others traveling to campus return their travel reimbursements. Donors sponsor dinners. Retiring clergy donate books.

Bethany and Russ Albrecht
 Jim Anthis
 Bryant Badger
 Duane Bidwell
 Ellen Blue and Jim Wilson
 George Carver
 Brenda Fletchall
 Steve Cranford and Myrna Jones

 Cynthia Mayes
 Robin Meyers
 Cheri Peluso-Verdend

 Clair Powers
 Brandon Scott and Margaret Lee
 Sara Smith
 Sandra Tabbernee

Tributes and Memorials

We are grateful for those persons and organizations that saw fit to honor someone with a gift to the seminary, for those persons who asked loved ones and colleagues to strengthen the seminary as a way of honoring or remembering them, and for you who were inspired to give. Such gifts can be designated either to the Annual Fund or to one of the endowment funds. Thank you.

Matching Gift Companies

Some donors work for corporations that are committed to strengthening their employees' habit of giving. One way corporations build such habits is through matching gift programs. We are deeply grateful for the following corporations that matched a donor gift with a contribution:

Anadarko Petroleum Corporation

AT&T Foundation, Princeton, NJ

ConocoPhillips

GlaxoSmithKline Foundation

IBM Matching Grants Program

Oklahoma Gas and Electric Co. Foundation, Inc.

The Samuel Roberts Noble Foundation, Inc.
