Hybrid Course Format Details

The DMIN curriculum is offered in a hybrid format. Students can expect to be in class one week (Monday through Friday) and then complete additional course work through asynchronous online venues and synchronous video conferencing. Video sessions will be scheduled on Thursday evenings, 7-9:15 pm Central and each professor will post those dates on course book lists. (Book lists are published during the first two weeks of October for the January session, the first two weeks of July for the October session, and the first two weeks of March for the June session). (See pages 66-67 of the 2021-22 DMIN Handbook for more details.)

Immersion Courses

DPLC 731.2 Immersion: Borderlinks - A study trip that investigates the complex situation along the border between the United States and Mexico. This course is offered in cooperation with the BorderLinks organization of Tucson, Arizona. An international immersion fee (non-refundable after travel and housing arrangements have been made) which partially covers travel, food and lodging expenses will be assessed. Students who wish to enroll in this course must fill out and submit an Immersion Course enrollment Form by May 15. Students will travel to Tucson, Arizona on Saturday, October 15 and return on Saturday, October 22, 2022. Pre-trip assignments and a post trip meeting will be arranged. Passport required.

TC 900.06 Immersion: Israel/Palestine - Students will engage and better understand ethical and theological issues in the context of Palestine and Israel; improve skills of analysis and communication regarding complex and controversial geopolitical issues in public theology; reflect theologically on questions of religious, national, and ethnic identity; practice competencies as public theologians witnessing popularized narratives related to historical and scriptural inaccuracies. An international immersion fee (non-refundable after travel and housing arrangements have been made) which partially covers travel, food and lodging expenses will be assessed. Students who wish to enroll in this course must fill out and submit an Immersion Course enrollment Form by August 1. Students will travel to Israel on Sunday, January 1, 2023 and return on Friday, January 13, 2023. Other class meeting dates will apply. Passport required.

Project Courses

This June, the 905 Project Development Seminar II Course will be offered Saturday, June 25th from 9:00 am – Noon via Zoom. (NOTE: additional contact hours for these courses will be fulfilled through required online modules). If you wish to be enrolled in this class, please notify the Registrar and Program Director by May 1.

Chapel Services

Worship will be held at 11:00 am, Tuesday through Friday, June 21-24, 2022 in Meinders Chapel. Please note that attendance is expected for chapel services, as they are included in your total program contact hours.

Enrollment

The first week or two of March, you will receive an email from the Registrar with a "Program Trajectory Form" attached, created to assist you in tracking your progress through the DMIN curriculum. When you receive this information, please double-check the data on this sheet to verify it is correct. If you see any mistakes, please notify the Registrar so that any necessary adjustment to your record can be made. You will notice we have already added to your form the class we are recommending for you in June (it will be highlighted in yellow). We prefer students complete the 3 Foundation courses before taking a Specialization course. If you would like to request a different course, please contact the Program Director.

*Please note: every DMIN student needs to take at least one immersion course in order to fulfill the requirements of their program.

Book Lists

Course book lists are now housed in the "Student Services" site on Canvas. (That is also the location where you will find many other helpful documents and important details about available student resources!) Book lists are posted during the first two weeks of October for January sessions and the first two weeks of March for June sessions. If you have any questions about your book list, please contact the Academic Affairs Office.

Syllabus & Canvas Course

Your DMIN course will be turned on and visible to students 30 days before the 1st day of class. Your syllabus will be posted in the Canvas course.

Community Meals

During the DMIN Fortnight week on campus, there will be a daily Community lunch in the Student Commons from Noon to 1:00 pm. A donation basket will be available if you wish to contribute something toward the cost of the meal.

Grades

Grades for the June session are due in the registrar's office on September 15. The deadline to file for an "Incomplete" is September 1. Your grade sheets will be mailed to you.

Financial Aid:

In the Student Services site in Canvas, we have a financial aid tab where you will find our Financial Aid Handbook. (NOTE: your tuition aid scholarship from the seminary is automatically applied to your account. The only requirement to qualify is the submission of a yearly donor thank you letter). If you have any questions about any information in the handbook, please contact the Financial Aid Officer.

Billing & Refund Period:

You will receive a bill for your June session mid-June. Billing is handled by the Bursar and payment plans are available.

3/7/2021

The following refund schedule will be in effect for the June 2022 session:

- Courses dropped by 5 pm on Tuesday, June 21: 100% refund
- Courses dropped by 5 pm on Wednesday, June 22: 80% refund
- Courses dropped by 5 pm on Thursday, June 23, 50% refund
- There will be a 100% refund for the 904 & 905 courses if dropped by 5 pm Friday, June 24

Lodging

A number of lodging options are available. You can find an updated Lodging List in the Student Services site in Canvas.

Library Hours

The June session library hours will be published in May. You can also find these listed on the seminary calendar, accessible on the Phillips website.

Travel Grants

All students who live more than 100 miles from campus are eligible to apply for a $250 travel grant to offset the cost of travel and lodging. The form can be found in the Student Services site in Canvas. Please email these forms to the Coordinator of Student Services.

Email & Technology

All DMIN students are issued a PTS email address. Please remember to check it frequently! Professors and PTS staff will only use your official PTS email address for communications. Your email account is accessible through the Single-Sign-On portal. Should you have any technology challenges, please email helpdesk@ptstulsa.edu.
