

The Frank H. Marshall Award for Ministerial Excellence 2024 Nomination Form

The Frank H. Marshall Award recognizes graduates of Phillips Theological Seminary, Phillips Graduate Seminary, The Graduate Seminary of Phillips University or the College of the Bible whose service to God, the Church and the human Community has been faithful and exemplary. A nominee might be someone who has rendered outstanding service as a faithful congregational minister, in a ministry beyond the local congregation, as a missionary, chaplain, campus minister, or directing unique ministries. A nominee should also show a commitment to Phillips values and ethos in their ministry. <https://www.ptstulsa.edu/about-us/culture-commitments/>

It is the highest honor given by the Phillips Alumnae/i Association and is presented to one or two individuals each year. The selection is made by the Award Committee of the Alumnae/i Association.
