at Phillips Theological Seminary

A Place For Belonging

Built for Students. Designed for Community.

Bedford House at Phillips Theological Seminary was built for students to develop the relationships and engage in the conversations that form exceptional ministers and theological leaders.

Beyond our student community, Bedford House serves as a vibrant hub for meaningful gatherings of all kinds. This welcoming space brings people together for celebrations, retreats, and important conversations. Here, your community can share meals, exchange ideas, and build lasting relationships around shared values.

Gracious Lodging

Single King Room

Double Queen Room

Our guest rooms offer a peaceful retreat designed with your comfort in mind. Each room features an en suite bathroom, climate control, and thoughtful amenities that allow you to rest well and work productively.

Whether you're staying for a weekend retreat or an extended visit, you'll find a welcoming space that feels like a home away from home. Single king and double queen accommodations are available to suit your needs.

Well-Appointed Bath

Vibrant Spaces

Pittman Hall

Included with your rental are 20 60" round tables, 12 6' rectangular tables and 240 chairs to be placed at your direction.

There are many vibrant and wonderful spaces at Bedford House for study, meetings, and renewal.

Pittman Hall is beautifully appointed and accommodates up to 160 guests at round tables or 220 in theater-style seating, making it ideal for organizational gatherings, conferences, and special celebrations.

The hall features state-of-the-art audiovisual equipment with large screens, a customizable stage, and a professional lectern. With neutral color palettes and sophisticated décor, Pittman Hall provides the perfect canvas to complement any design vision or theme you envision.

Residential Kitchen

Features all the implements needed for guests to prepare and enjoy meals together. The open floor plan flows into the first floor lounge for planned or spontaneous social time.

First Floor Lounge

Offers a welcoming retreat where guests can unwind, work, or study in comfort. Floor-to-ceiling windows offer inspiring views of the courtyard and labyrinth.

Labyrinth & Courtyard

Showcases native trees and plants with shaded seating areas perfect for quiet contemplation. A scaled Chartres labyrinth offers a path for reflection and spiritual renewal.
